

News Article

Honeywell Releases NEW Video Recorder July 1, 2006

Honeywell proudly announces the release of the next generation Video Recorder by introducing the Minitrend QX(5.5" display) and Multitrend QX(12.1" display) units. Common Features include: 20 msec input scan Remote View & Control Custom Screen Design Math Scripting Fuzzy logging High capacity storage OPC Server in recorder Easy configuration Software Support Packages Diagnostics & Health Watch Firmware credit flexibility 50 User Password(21CFR Part 11 compliant) With its industrial rugged touch screen display, both configuration and stored data can be viewed easily by a move of your finger. Two USB and one compact flash slot allows for almost limitless data storage at the instrument. Furthermore, each recorder has its own web page. This site can be interrogated using a standard web browser from any PC - Plant Wide. Call ACI for more information.